

5th grade fly-ups

As part of the transition process between elementary and middle school, children and families were invited from all feeder schools to Cedar Park. There were interpreters available for Spanish speaking families. Incoming students and parents learned about the school, policies, teachers, programs, etc. It was a team effort at Cedar Park and I was part of it too.